Leesburg to Celebrate National Night Out 2016 Community Appreciation event means fun for all!

LEESBURG, FL – The City of Leesburg will join with communities nationwide for the “33rd Annual National Night Out” (NNO) event on Tuesday, Oct. 4. Leesburg festivities will be at the Susan Street Sports Complex at 940 Susan Street in Leesburg from 5 p.m. until 8 p.m. This FREE family fun event brings police, community service providers and neighbors together to have fun while promoting partnerships and preventing crime.

Last year, hundreds turned out for Leesburg’s edition of the event. This year’s line-up includes:

- An amazing bike stunt show featuring Chris Clark
- Dance shows, a caricature artist, balloon artists
- A bounce house, stilt walkers, a photo booth, rock climbing
- Face painting, a petting zoo, rock wall climbing,
- UF Health ShandsCair helicopter
- Live performances, FESTIVAL FOOD, lots of FREE GIVEAWAYS!
- And a few surprises....

Leesburg National Night Out 2016 is sponsored by the Leesburg Police Department and the National Association of Town Watch (NATW). Locally, the event is co-sponsored by Jenkins Auto Group. For more information, call 352-728-9859 , visit the Leesburg Police web page at www.leesburgpolice.com, or visit the Leesburg Police Facebook page.

Leesburg is a progressive city of more than 21,000 residents in northwest Lake County. The city government serves twice as many people with its electric, gas, water, wastewater and fiber-optic public utilities. Leesburg also is a central hub for commerce, attracting 50,000 people to work each weekday. For more information, visit www.leesburgflorida.gov.
